Sincere

Dreamshade

Why can't I understand you? The path you're on I can't get to Why can't I feel you in my heart?

We're drifting so far apartDon't make it up, please be sincere 'cause I just can't sleep at night, since you're not hereSometimes I want to fucking scream

Scream 'till I have no voice

Have someone to hold me

Tell me there's another choiceTake my hand I'm here for you Let me in, we'll make it throughSometimes I want to fucking scream

> Scream 'till I have no voice Have someone to hold me Tell me there's another choice so...Take my hand I'm here for you Let me in, we'll make it throughWhy can't I understand you?

The path you're on I can't get to Why can't I feel you in my heart?

We're drifting so far apartDon't make it up, please be sincere 'cause I just can't sleep at night, since you're not hereDon't make it up, just be sincere I swear I'll do my best to get back on your path
