Srxt

Bloc Party

Walking in the countryside
It seems that the winds have stopped
I took down the posters from my wall
Left letters for you allI remember moments of happiness
Endless summer, acoustic guitars
Being a man made me coarse
When I wanted to be delicateI called up Eugene
Told him I was drowning
I called up Eugene
Told him I was drowningLike a castaway on a warm ocean
Waiting for a purpose to rise
They say it's not becoming
For a boy my ageIf you want to know what makes me sad
Well, it's hope, the endurance of faith
A battle that lasts a lifetime
A fight that never endsWalking in the countryside
It seems that the winds have stopped
Tell my mother I am sorry
And I loved her

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/