

Endless

Crematory

The wind whispers my name
Rain drenches my skin
The chill suffocates my gasp
Darkness conceals my scars
Endless love, endless fall, endless hate, endless call
Endless love, endless fall, endless hate, endless call
Fear prevents lowly acts
Worrimment diminishes secrets problems
In danger of falling into a trap
The game to slake yourself
Endless love, endless fall, endless hate, endless call
Let me be your everything
When I'm lookin' to you
Let me see you when I'm king
When you are my something
Thoughts circle and fade away
The Heavens soaked in bloodred
The stars so far and distant
The power to relinquish
Endless love, endless fall, endless hate, endless call
Let me be your everything
When I'm lookin' to you
Let me see you when I'm King
When you are my something
Endless love, endless fall, endless hate, endless call
Endless love, endless fall, endless hate, endless call
Skin ripened by many days
Lies give away hidden feats
The torso abused by many melees
The birth of a new game
Let me be your everything
When I'm lookin' to you
Let me see you when I'm king
When you are my something
Endless love endless fall
(Let me be your everything)
Endless hate endless call
(When I'm lookin' to you)
Endless love endless fall
(Let me see you when I'm king)
Endless hate endless call
(When you are my something)
