Endless

Crematory

The wind whispers my name

Rain drenches my skin

The chill suffocates my gasp

Darkness conceals my scarsEndless love, endless fall, endless hate, endless call

Endless love, endless fall, endless hate, endless callFear prevents lowly acts

Worriment diminishes secrets problems

In danger of falling into a trap

The game to slake yourselfEndless love, endless fall, endless hate, endless callLet me be your everything

When I'm lookin' to you

Let me see you when I'm king

When you are my somethingThoughts circle and fade away

The Heavens soaked in bloodred

The stars so far and distant

The power to relinquishEndless love, endless fall, endless hate, endless callLet me be your everything

When I'm lookin' to you

Let me see you when I'm King

When you are my somethingEndless love, endless fall, endless hate, endless call

Endless love, endless fall, endless hate, endless callSkin ripened by many days

Lies give away hidden feats

The torso abused by many melees

The birth of a new gameLet me be your everything

When I'm lookin' to you

Let me see you when I'm king

When you are my something Endless love endless fall

(Let me be your everything)

Endless hate endless call

(When I'm lookin' to you)

Endless love endless fall

(Let me see you when I'm king)

Endless hate endless call

(When you are my something)
