

I'll Give You Everything

D-Side

Caught in the first breath of morning
I see the ribbon of light on your skin
It's the most beautiful thing I have seen
Words can't tell you how I'm feeling
Time only let's me begin
So I'll whisper to your heart as you sleep
No I can't promise you're every dream
I just need you to believe
Chorus:
I'll give you everything I am
I'll place my heart in to your hands
I'll hear your voice like angels singing
And I'll give you everything that I am
If I could steal this moment
Hold the night back from the day
Keep you here forever
I've found my sanctuary
And if we're ever separated
By time, land and sea
I just know that in your heart
Is where I will forever be
No I can't promise your're every dream
I just need you to believe
Chorus
Now love has a meaning yeah
And for the first time I've been touched by the feeling
I will give you all that I am
Right here where I stand, woooooo yeah
Chorus
