

Late Again

MxPx

Late again,
Forgive me friends,
For I am late again,
Til' the day I die, Lord knows I'll try,
'Cause I'm still late again. When they call my name outside those gates,
I'll be on my way,
Well that's all I can say,
'Cause I'm late again. Late again,
Forgive me friends,
For I am late again,
Til' the day I die, Lord knows I'll try,
'Cause I'm still late again. With all the saints, that don't place blame
On sunshine, rain or snow,
Believe me 'cause I know. That I'm Late again,
Forgive me friends,
For I am late again,
Til' the day I die, Lord knows I'll try,
'Cause I'm still late again. I was late coming into this world,
??? Don't you make going out ???
I was late trying to put this record out. Go. Late again,
Forgive me friends,
For I am late again,
Til' the day I die, Lord knows I'll try,
'Cause I'm still late again. [x2] Til' the day I die, Lord knows I'll try,
'Cause I'm still late again.
