

The Runaway

The Word Alive

You get caught in a hurricane
Scattered thoughts make you go insane
(Oh oh oh whoa) (oh oh oh whoa)
You lock yourself in your own cage
Hide the keys and then fade away, go
(Oh oh oh whoa) (oh oh oh whoa) You are not alone We can get through it tonight
I will be the anchor to your runaway train tonight
I will be the beacon when you're feeling insane
I know it hurts sometimes, so I'll get in line with you
Tonight, I will be the anchor to your runaway train And I will be your anchor You think this could be the end
An afterlife is just pretend you go
(Oh oh oh whoa) (oh oh oh whoa)
Illuminate the darkest days
I'm never leaving your side, I'm here to stay
(Oh oh oh whoa) (oh oh oh whoa) You are not alone We can get through it tonight
I will be the anchor to your runaway train tonight
I will be the beacon when you're feeling insane
I know it hurts sometimes, so I'll get in line with you, oh oh oh
Tonight
I will be the anchor to your runaway train Never look back, never regret
All of the words you said in hope
Never pretend, never the end
There's always a fight to win Tonight
I will be the anchor to your runaway train
Tonight
I will be the beacon when you're feeling insane
I know it hurts sometimes, so I'll get in line with you oh oh oh
Tonight
I will be the anchor to your runaway train And I will be your anchor
I will be your anchor
