Innuendo

Drill

I like to watch, wanna make him tremble
He knows that I'm never gonna take it further
I can see you, little baby
Moving close behind meI wanna go, I gotta turn back
I wanna share an innuendoI am drifting slowly, want to play
I, well
It's nothing less, it's nothing more than
A simple innuendoI like to tell him little made up stories
He's all ears and he never seems to think they're boring
Want to drive you a little, a little crazy
So much fun teasing youI wanna scare, I wanna shock you
I wanna share an innuendoI am drifting slowly, want to play
I, well
It's nothing less, it's nothing more than
A simple innuendoI am drifting slowly, want to play
I, well
It's nothing less, it's nothing more than
A simple innuendoI am drifting slowly, want to play
I, well
It's nothing less, it's nothing more than
A simple innuendo
