

The Matter of Splatter

Exhumed

[musick - Mike Beams, Lyrixxx - Matt Harvey]Pernicious - A ghastly Gordian quandary to elucidate

Pestiferous - A nebulous necrotic novelty to navigate

Labyrinthine - A contumely carnal conundrum to cogitate

Serpentine - An exulcerated entanglement to execrate...Hands stained and filthy from digging deep for the answer

That lies at the heart of the matter of splatter...Eschatological - The grave matters with which we struggle

Pathological - The perverse perpetuation of this purulent puzzle

Repugnant - The wretched riddle unravels in a reeking revelation

Repulsive - The final fetid farce yields such a rancid realizationNow your morbid curiosity may finally be answered

Deep in the heart of the matter of splatter...A morbid matter on which to meditate or mutilate

A deathly detail to deliberate and desiccate

A sombre study in which sagacity is tantamount to insanity

An insalubrious interest in the inhumed and the unsanitary...An unhealthy pursuit of the purulent and parturient

A feculent fixation upon the fetid filth and excrement

An exhaustive examination of the excreted and the exhumed

A tireless appetite to hill the silt atop the tomb...[Lead - Mike]Nebulous - The sanguineous solution is seldom seen before the last

Amorphous - Seemingly always six deep feet beyond your grasp

Funereal - Carnal cartography to chart the course of life's denouement

Corporeal - The wretched revelation that you sought proves harder to swallow than you'd thought...That anatomy is destiny is the unforgiving answer

Culled from the heart of the matter of splatter...
