Holy Shadows

Edguy

You're a child of an old illusion
Can't you hear it cry?
You live your life to the exclusion
Of what they call a lieThe touch of evil it is getting stronger
You'd better hide in the daylight
Or you won't stand the temptation no longer
And you will ask if your way is rightDo not ask the preacher why
All your fears keep it alive
Waiting for the end of timeHoly shadows, always follow
Holy chains on holy shadowsWhen you are eve then I am temptation
I am the words you're not allowed to say
The animal of their revelation
'Cause I can take your fears awayThey make you blind and they want you to follow
"Free love is sin desire's slavery"
My wicked kiss on your virgin lips
Will be a pleasant way you'll see itDo not ask the preacher why
All your fears keep it alive
Waiting for the end of timeHoly shadows always follow
Holy chains on holy shadowsLet's get down on the floor
You'll be screaming for more
When out bodies collide I'll make you feel alright
Never give in when they call it sin
Waiting for the end of timeHoly shadows always follow
Holy chains on holy shadows
Holy shadows always follow
Holy chains on holy shadows
Holy shadows always follow
Holy chains on holy shadowsFather, forgive her for giving in to her lust
For being not able to stand
The temptation and for enjoying it
