

Silver Moonlight (Hydra Live in Concert)

Within Temptation

Till another little ray
Care about the day your heart breaks up
When you lose your way I'm hellbound in this life
Keep fighting the coldest wars
It's always been like this but don't know why And sleeping in your mind
You feel it, ties you down
Going down
I'll go by No
Screaming at the walls of fire
Frozen into me
Hunted for the vertical sealed before that
It's where I wanna be
Screaming at the walls of fire
But I'm still running free
In the silver moonlight
I can't breathe
Woo These days are only now
Breathe in the coldest lies
I think it's only what you have in mind
Hold onto the best of you
I hit the pavement
Going down
Don't know why No
Screaming at the walls of fire
Frozen into me
Hunted for the vertical sealed before that
It's where I wanna be
Screaming at the walls of fire
But I'm still running free
In the silver moonlight
I can't breathe No, I'm patient
But this colours that I live
All alone in this life
I cannot see
Dreams we hide are solid
But we can't let her bleed
Maybe what we make
Can you see?
Oh (I will fight in this life

Defying the coldest wars
It's always been like this
But don't know why)No
Screaming at the walls of fire
Frozen into me
Hunted for the vertical sealed before that
I'm still running free
Woo
(Your fear will chain you down)Till I know a little rain
Care about the day your heart breaks up
When you lose your way
