Landslide

Vision of Disorder

Count down everyday in life, Held down, now you feel confined Walls keep closing in,
Still I got my grip
Never to lose it
Some are confused, somefeel the shame Always left out in the rain
Some say the other, needs to be smothered Place the balme
It's time to reignite the flame
No time to recognize the pain
One chance to rise above the rest
Now you know what I mean Never giving in Alert always on point Expect nothing but the best Commit break away today Accept forms of change
'Cause it's in you, 'cause it's in me evolution of the mind life is a sea, life is a lie it ain't gonna stop for anyone why you trying to hold me?
can't you see your never gonna hold me no one's clock is ever gonna own me 'cause I'm too strong and I lead a smart life educated, re?????? Through insight refined through years of discipline if it's me against you I'm gonna win defeat is a word I never knew now is yo;ur chance what the fuck you gonna do all oy you have a chance to be something don't let it slip away could of but you never did would of forever's in the past should of were you afraid of what you would find you can't trust it subjection to an illnes

you know what you see, ain't what it seems now you're grasping to no avail why you reaching for my hand save it for someone who gives a fuck
'cause it's all in my heart
