I Come In Peace

Soko

Won't you man up now and be a hero?
I never thought you would let me go
All the voices keep torturing your head, head
You gotta quiet them, quiet themI've come in peace, come to rescue you
And thought you're sick I will comfort you
My heart is weak
When I'm not with you
We gotta make it throughYou gotta live and learn and you've learned to bail
You live your life like you're stuck in hell
And my only goal is to make you feel safe
But like everything I do I failI've come in peace, come to rescue you
And thought you're sick I will comfort you
My heart is weak
When I'm not with you
We gotta make it throughYou were part of a dream
And you made life more real, and you
Gave sense to my life too
You gave sense to my life tooYou were part of a dream
And you made life more real, and you
Gave sense to my life too
You gave sense to my life tooWon't you man up now and be a hero?
Won't you man up now and be a hero?
Won't you man up now and be a hero?
Won't you man up now and be a hero?
