

Northern Lights

Audrey

Haven't I heard?
Heard you're gone now I keep in vision you still Eyes turned into sand
And bidden into frost
Or wherever you... Haven't I heard?
Heard you're gone now You might have been Harbouring in me
Just as like a prayer You might have been Harbouring in this
Just as like a prayer Guide me north It's becoming too hard It's hard The night sends tales... wherever you are... I'm not sure
