

Summer Moors

New Model Army

You used to say that this town was built
In the wrong place
I could always feel something was strange
Such a strong taste You were so much in love with her
That it drew you away
To chasing shadows out across the moors
On an august day So follow them down
Past the church
Where she lies
(UNKNOWN)
On the path to the skies
They only said that you'd gone again
Maybe this time not coming back
Just another setting sun
You were just another setting sun
Lost to the world
Lost to the world You were always trying to understand
Where the heart goes
With the ghosts rushing through the grass
As the wind blows You were so much in love with her
That it drew you away
For what is real and what is make believe
Who's to say?
So follow her down
Past the stone
Where she lies
(UNKNOWN)
In the path to the skies They only said that you'd gone again
Maybe this time not coming back
You were just another setting sun
They only said that you'd gone again
Maybe this time not coming back
Just another setting sun
Just another setting sun
Lost to the world
Lost to the world
