When You Fall in Love Everything's a Waltz

Ed Bruce

We don't dance the two-step anymore
All we need's a small part of the floor
The band can go on playing almost anything it wants
When you fall in love every thing's a waltzEyes are meant for looking into, way up close Arms were meant for holding what you want the most Lips were meant to say what bodies feel down in their hearts
When you fall in love every thing's a waltz
