Lovin' In Vain

Patsy Cline

I still want your lovin' and I still need your lovin'
But I can't live a life of lovin' in vainLast night I saw you a-walkin, talkin' with another
Overheard you tell her, our love don't mean a thing
And as I walked away dear, my heart broke down inside meI still want your lovin' and I still need your lovin'
But I can't live a life of lovin' in vainI'd rather be a poor girl, not a penny to my name
Than to know my life would all be lived in vain
I'd rather be alone dear, if you don't want to changeI still want your lovin' and I still need your lovin'
But I can't live a life of lovin' in vainI still want your lovin' and I still need your lovin'
But I can't live a life of lovin' in vain

Lyrics provided by
https://damnlyrics.com/