Dust In The Sunlight

Aonaran

What has been done to you has been done for a reason
From where I'm stood, the view reminds me of home
A promise is made in good faith, it means everything
You mean more to me each day
And you mean everything everythingWhat has been done to you has been done for a reason
From where I'm stood, the view reminds me of home
I should know, I should know, I won't fight, I won't fightWell, I won't fight, I won't fight, well, I won't fight
Well, I won't fight
Fight, fight, fight, well, I won't fight
Well, I won't fight
Well, I won't fight, fight, fight, fight
