Breadline

Megadeth

Ain't got no job Ain't got no smoke Ain't got a car His life's a jokeLiving on the skids Thinks the world's just fine Forgot what he did Dancing on the breadlineNo one there to bind him Nothing to remind him Nowhere left to find him About to lose his lifeline He's dancing on the breadlineForgot who he is Forgot who he was Used to call the shots Now, he can't connect the dotsA mover and a shaker Getting closer to his maker Lower than a hemline Dancing on the breadlineNo one there to bind him Nothing to remind him Nowhere left to find him, nowhereAbout to lose his lifeline He's looking for a headline

He's looking for a headline
Sniffing up the white linesHe's dancing on the breadline
He's dancing on the breadline
Watch him danceAbout to lose his lifeline
He's looking for a headline
Sniffing up the white linesHe's dancing on the breadline
The breadline

Nowhere, nothing, nowhere The breadline
Dancing on the breadline
Dancing on the breadline
He forgot and he ain't got nothing
