

Automatic

Stellar Kart

As sure as a phoenix sunrise
And the yanks in the playoffs every year
You're absolutely faithful
I'm positively prone to disappear

But like I breathe
And my heart beats

[Chorus]

I wanna love you like it's automatic
Make you into my good habit
You're the only one that really matters
Every minute everyday it's automatically OK
When I make it all about you

It's a mixed up messed up world with
An unsatisfaction guarantee

So I'm pledging my allegiance
To the one and only one
Who can set me free

Just like I breathe
And my heart beats

[Chorus]

But I'm not a robot
Made with no thought
What's the point of living life
Without the will to choose
To run with the have nots
Or go with the sure shot
I'm with you

I wanna love you like it's automatic
Make you into my good habit
You're the only one that really matters
Love you like it's automatic
Make you into my good habit

You're the only one that really matters
Every minute everyday it's automatically OK
When I make it all about you

Gonna make it all about you
