So Far Away

Blue Rodeo

I'll be in your dream
If you'll be in my dream
Still you are so far away from me
So far away from meMy love for you is a sin
If you're not there I never have been
Yeah you are so far away from me So far away from meI don't have all of the time in the world
But all of the time that I have It is yours
All of the time that I have It is yoursYou're so high dancing on your clouds
And I'm down here with this tired old hound
Yeah you are so far away from me
So far away from meClose my eyes gently
Hold and caress me
My heart is empty
With you so far away from me
So far away from meI don't have all of the time in the world
But all of the time that I have It is yours
All of the time that I have It is yoursI don't have all of the time in the world
But all the time that
I have It is yours All the time that I have It is yours
