

Deal 'Em Again

Christopher Cross

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

You pick up the cards that they're dealing to you
You can throw down or showdown
The bluff makes a fool out of you The ante goes up and your luck runs down
It's a strange game, it's a damn shame
But somebody's going to lose It don't matter, lose or win
You can deal 'em again
Deal 'em again A handful of hearts and you're playing to win
It goes down and you're put down
And that takes it all out of you One last hand and you're going for broke
The cards fall and you take all
Just when you thought you were through It don't matter, lose or win
You can deal 'em again
Deal 'em again
Deal 'em again
Deal 'em again It don't matter, lose or win
You can, you can deal 'em again
Deal 'em again You pick up the cards that they're dealing to you
You can throw down or showdown
When love makes a fool out of you The ante goes up and your luck runs down
It's a strange game, it's a damn shame
But somebody's going to lose It don't matter, lose or win
You can, you can deal 'em again
Deal 'em again
Deal 'em again
Deal 'em again You can deal 'em again
Deal 'em again
Deal 'em again
You gotta deal 'em again, hey
