

Everyday

Jessie Daniels

What are you thinking,
Doing the things you do?
What are you wanting?
Cause all I want is you to see
Everything you are to me
And how you and I can be
Every dream come true.

(chorus)

Everyday I try to tell you
Everytime I think I get through,
You put up the wall
You're so invincible
Nothing could keep me away
I'll find a way
Everyday

What are you scared of?
What do you have to lose?
You'll never know if
All you do is refuse and hide
From the door that's open wide.
Ignore the voice you hear inside
And everything I say.

(chorus)

I won't give up
Cause you mean that much
No matter what you are going through
I've waited this long
My long is stronger than forever
Strong enough to keep loving you

(chorus X2)

I'm waiting on you
Every single day.
