Dread In My Heart

Mother Mother

There's a god awful shitty feeling of dread in my heart
Ya it's got a lot to do with having to finish what I start
And at any second now I think it all might fall apart
'Cause there's a god awful shitty feeling of dread in my heartYa-ah, oooâ€¦There's a devil in my brain with a pitchfork and a flame
Ya he likes to poke around and he likes to tell me things
And whenever I begin to feel like I might be deranged
I remember there's a little shitty devil in my brainYa-ah, oooâ€¦Oh I wonder what it's like to be the type who doesn't burn
Ya the kind who fights the good fight
Not the kind you'll find fisti-fuckin-cuffin' in the dirtThere's a god awful shitty feeling of dread in my heart
And I can't seem to change my attitude, but I can change my heart
'Cause you know how actually at times that can be a good start
But not today, there's still a god awful shitty feeling of dread in my heartYa in my heart, ya-ahâ€¦
Ya in my heart, ya-ahâ€¦
Oh ya, oooâ€¦.
Oh no, ya-ahâ€¦.
