

True Lady

Big Head Todd And The Monsters

True Lady over the ocean blue,
Found another I'm imagining.
And as I sail into this distance,
Keeping in my heart your face,
Keeping in my heart your face,
True Lady over the sea,
Beauty as I have never known,
Has it faded in the years,
For someone else to behold,
For someone else to behold?
True Lady in your mansion high
With many lovers to wait on you,
Has your memory of me died,
Am I just blowing in the wind,
Am I just blowing in the wind?
