

Lie to Me

Prince Royce

Show me yours, show you mine Lie to me
Tell me anything you want me to believe
And I'll be anyone that you want me to be
Show me yours, I'll show you mine
Show me yours, I'll show you mine I'm kissing on this girl with a million-dollar mouthpiece
It's funny how she caught me
Usually I'm the one doing the talking
But she had so much to say
Started off nice and innocent
But even a fool could tell the difference
Between sweet girls and sweet nothings
I know better, I know better Liar, liar, set my heart on fire
I got skeletons in my closet, too
So go ahead, I won't judge it, girl Lie to me
Tell me anything you want me to believe
And I'll be anyone that you want me to be
Show me yours, I'll show you mine
Show me yours, I'll show you mine As you went out, you say you was with your girlfriends
Mmm-hmm, girlfriend, girlfriend
I was out, too, looking for some revenge
Guess we even Liar, liar, set my heart on fire
I got skeletons in my closet, too
So go ahead, I won't judge it, girl Lie to me
Tell me anything you want me to believe
And I'll be anyone that you want me to be (want me to be)
Show me yours, I'll show you mine
Show me yours, I'll show you mine Dime, mami chula show me what you tryna do
You ain't gotta talk, just let your body tell on you
Dime, mami chula show me what you tryna do
Yo no quiero hablar, let your body tell on you
So go ahead, so go ahead
Go ahead, I won't judge it, baby Lie to me
Tell me anything you want me to believe
And I'll be anyone that you want me to be
Show me yours, I'll show you mine
Show me yours, I'll show you mine
