Something Beautiful Remains

Tina Turner

Tears will leave no stains
Time will ease the pain
For every life that fades
Somethin' beautiful remainsWe're living in world, stars and dust
Between heaven and all that surrounds us
We're travelers here, spirits passing through
And the love we give, is all that will endureHey now, what we had is gone
But I still remember you
Just like a rose after the rain
Somethin' beautiful remainsTears will leave no stains
Time will ease the pain
For every life that fades
Somethin' beautiful remainsNow the darkness falls
The sun's going down
One by one, the stars are comin' out
Tide comes in, washes footprints from the sand
As one day ends a new day must beginHey now, though we are apart
You're forever in my dreams
Hey now, love is lost again
Something beautiful remainsTears will leave no stains
Time will ease the pain
For every life that fades
Something beautiful remainsAnd you wonder sometimes how you carry on
When you've lost the love you knew
But it's alright, alright
To your own heart be trueTears will leave no stains
Time will ease the pain
For every life that fades
Something beautiful remainsTears will leave no stains
Time will ease the pain
For every life that fades
Somethin' beautiful remainsTears will leave no stains
Time will ease the pain
For every life that fades
Something beautiful remains
