

Everybody Lies

Glory Glory

If you promise me, I will not close my eyes

Alone for no resign*

But to fight, to fight, to fight

The cause of evil design

It's dark versus light

Everybody lies, Open up your eyes

Everybody lies, Sometimes

But open up your eyes

Often though to be a bacon of travis light

But now we lost design.

Are we on the side, the side of evil design

Are we out of our minds?

Everybody lies, Open up your eyes

Everybody lies, Sometimes

But open up your eyes

Why, Why Did I?

Did I, Did I

Everybody lies, Open up your eyes

Everybody lies, Sometimes

But open up your eyes
