Attitude is my addiction I live life with no regret Unlike you, it's my conviction That sets me apart from the restI live for competition Your cynicism only makes me stronger I am the culmination Setting the standard that all will follow live it every day Don't know another way Within my eyes there's devastation And fury you can't understand In my fight, win by attrition I bring it with all that I fucking am All that I fucking amYou never dealt with such rejection Licking your wounds that won't fucking heal You've never seen so much aggression I am the scream to your fucking silenceI live it every day Don't know another wayAttitude is my addiction I live life with no regret Unlike you, it's my affliction That creates the template of all that I am All that I fucking amYou know and I know No matter what you say You'll be beaten today Like every other daySomething about you Keeps you from letting go Of lame obsessions Built up inside youForget the guesswork You're starting at the source Gazing into my eyes You'll see there's no remorse'Cause this is my war All day and every day It's all about the conflict, yeahBring on the competition Your pessimism only makes me stronger I am the culmination The fucking standard that all will follow live it everyday Don't know another way
