When Glory Beckons

Bolt Thrower

When glory beckons
With no regrets
On this day of sorrow
The course now setEnd of life converges
A sweet release
Away from turmoil
To find peaceDeath now approaching
Where is victory?
At one with the earth
For all eternityPride now forgotten
Fighting for life
Strength decreasing
Twisting the knifeNow to leave
Departure of the soul
With relief
Eternity unfoldsDo not be sad
The pulse now gone
The war of life continuous
This battle now is wonMourn no more
Reaching eternal rest
Remember with no sadness
The final requestNow to leave
Departure of the soul
With relief
Eternity unfoldsEternity unfoldsUnfolds
