You Want It Back

Propellerheads

Sexy lover smokin' with passion
Step to the front if you wanna see the action
Glance at the mic should I rock my style?
It's been a long time since I got buck wildSometimes I feel lost in the sauce
When it comes down to who's the boss, am I being too soft?
Feenin' for your love and your special attention
Trying to get you to look in my directionEh you 'bout straight, put a cake in your oven
Got to see me to get the good lovin'
Wanna get the chance to sex and romance ya
On the dance floor, yeah you want moreI'm wit your girlfriends on the weekend
I give you all types of freakin' now you tell me you're leavin'
Girl get a grip 'cause I'm hittin' all angles
You know how the game goes, you gon' feel shamefulWhen you had it, you didn't want it
Now you ain't got it, so you want it back
When you had it, you didn't want it
Now you ain't got it, so you want it back
(You don't want this)When you had it, you didn't want it
Now you ain't got it, so you want it back
(You want that)
When you had it, you didn't want it
Now you ain't got it, so you want it backSpotlight game tight every night new sights
Who would ever think life could be so nice
Everything's love til you find out the price
You're saying you're sick of the same routineCan't separate life from a floor style dream
You wanna take a look split from the scenes
When you thought you got a grip it's true you lost steam
Kick start strain but you can't find stepIn your place is a stud with a bit more pep
Little less rep secret well kept
Aid her when you need every night you slept
Heard it all before can't believe it came trueHard to see what a good party'll do
What ya gon' do? Listen to your crew
Shoulda took a better look
At who's sleeping with youWhen you had it, you didn't want it
Now you ain't got it, so you want it back
When you had it, you didn't want it
Now you ain't got it, so you want it backWhen you had it, you didn't want it
Now you ain't got it, so you want it back
When you had it, you didn't want it
Now you ain't got it, so you want it backEvery time I turn around you're lookin' for somethin' new

Talkin' 'bout who got to find something else to do
Who you wit' and what you want is just a fantasy
That's why I keep tellin' you your ass need to be with meYou know what I'm sayin'
That's what you wantWhen you had it, you didn't want it
Now you ain't got it, so you want it back
When you had it, you didn't want it
Now you ain't got it, so you want it backWhen you had it, you didn't want it
Now you ain't got it, so you want it back
When you had it, you didn't want it
Now you ain't got it, so you want it back
