

Didn't I

Thin Lizzy

Well, I thought I could make you cry, oh didn't I?
I didn't think that I would miss you, ah, did you, did you true?
And I told you before, when you walked out that door
That I would not love you any more, I cannot cope any more
Well, I thought you'd never lie, why didn't I?
I didn't think that you'd be untrue, well, did you, did you too?
And I've told you before, when you'd walk out that door
That I would not cope any more, I do not have you any more
I thought I could make you cry and I tried now,
didn't I?
I didn't think that I would miss you, but it wasn't true, I do
And I told you before, a million times or more
That when you'd walk out that door
I would not love you any more, I do not love you any more
I lied, now didn't I? Oh, didn't I?
There are people in this town, that say I don't give a damn
But the people in this town, they never could understand
Oh, they never could understand
I thought I could make you cry and I tried, now didn't I?
Didn't I try, didn't I?
I didn't think that I would miss you, but it wasn't true, I do, I do
And I told you before that you'd open up my sores
And you'd leave me here with scars
I cannot take it any more, oh, don't hurt me no more
I cried and I cried, now didn't I?
Why didn't I try? Why didn't I?
