Syndrome

Weakened

I take a deep breath
The smell might get me high
You get fucked up just to get by

I sleep all day cause I canâ€™t open my eyes
You pissed it all away
And never said goodbye

The strength I find
I find on the inside
And I will not apologize

We are so scared of Whatâ€™s around the corner
Thatâ€™s why we try to destroy the order

Chaos wonâ€™t let us see
Whatâ€™s coming around the bend
The journey is more important than the end

The strength I find
I find on the inside
And I will not apologize for my prize

I guess you didnâ€™t know
Itâ€™s not a weakness
Itâ€™s just my syndrome

You will never know
The depth of my Syndrome
You will never know
The depth of my Syndrome
Why do we try to die?
Syndrome
Why do we try to die?
Syndrome

The pills will make it go away
Depression is my only friend
Iâ€™m never getting better

And I donâ€™t want to anyway

The strength I find
I find on the inside
And I will not apologize for my prize

The angels are calling me home
I guess you didnâ€™t know
Itâ€™s not a weakness
Itâ€™s just my Syndrome

Why do we try to die all the time?
Isnâ€™t it just enough to be alive?

Lyrics powered by lyrics.tancode.com written by JUZWICK, RICHARD LAWRENCE / NORDSTROM, AARON VINCENT / MEDINA, BRIAN STEELE / PAVERI, ALESSANDRO / SALERNO, MICHAEL ANTHONY Lyrics Â© Warner/Chappell Music, Inc.

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/