

Sixty Five

Gentle Bones

Store this emptiness aside there's everything supplied

It's pouring out the sidesThere's no room for weaknesses and fear the strong they fight they endure lasting longer yearsTonight, we'll make it out alive, we'll leave it all behind, and stand upFor all we love will always be enoughSo have me hide my emotion, hide my pain for our land that we lay

our lives upon these never ending daysAll for the very labour and love through every hurdle unnerved

Keep the fire burningThey may have put us in this plight, I won't be frail enough to lie, it's our 1965Tonight, we'll make it out alive,
we'll leave it all behind,

Keep the fire burningWell I don't know if I can bring my people pride give it all, give it all it's us to fightThe legacy you left in our manifest

and ensure that this would blossom in our handsSo have me hide my emotion, hide my pain

Keep the fire burningIt's our time to keep the fire burning.
