Sing for Me

Us

I'm sitting on the roof again, staring at the stars
Hope lies in the shadows, I wonder where You are
Are You listening for my voice
Feel You so close yet You're far away
Sing for me one more song
Pray for me one more time
I can feel You though You're not here
Your voice whispers in the breeze and You are near Through everything around me I find comfort in You
Through trials and the heartache Your words, they speak the truth
Lay me down to sleep now, You'll still be on my mind
If I die before I wake, You'd still see through the lines
Sing for me one more song
Pray for me one more time
I can feel You though You're not here
Your voice whispers in the breeze and You are near to me
Yeah, I've been ripped out, cut short
Stopped within my tracks

I've been tied down, turned 'round
Learned to face the facts
I was nothing now something
You're everything to me
Don't go, please stay
You're all that I need
Sing for me one more song
Pray for me one more time
I can feel You though You're not here
You whisper in the breeze and You are near
Sing for me one more song
Pray for me one more time
I can feel You though You're not here
You whisper in the breeze and You're near
Sing for me, pray for me
Sing for me, pray for me
