Dreaming

Leighton Meester

A haunted soul
And yes, I know
That it's all immaterial
And that's not all,
See, I want more
Than something that I know's not realIs this real life?
Why can't I decide?
I think I'll stay a whileCause,
I'm only dreaming
And the hallway's cold
And the lights are on
You're just a call away
And nothing's wrong
And nothing's gone awayIt never ends
When my mind sends
Me into oblivion
A secret place
That is laced
With a dose of what could have beenIs this real life?
Why can't I decide?
I think I'll stay a whileCause,
I'm only dreaming
And the hallway's cold
And the lights are on
You're just a call away
And nothing's wrong
And nothing's gone awayLeave me be
I'm at peace
Asleep
Slipping in between the sheets
In my favorite dreamsIs this real life?
Why can't I decide?
I think I'll stay a whileI'm only dreaming
And the hallway's cold
And the lights are on
You're just a call away
And nothing's wrong
And nothing's gone awayI'm only dreaming
And the hallway's cold

And the lights are on
You're just a call away
And nothing's wrong
And nothing's gone away
