Make a Little Magic

Scott Dawson

Are you thinking what I'm thinking?
Does a chill run down your spine?
All three kids are fast asleep
Hear the midnight hour chime
The mockingbird he serenades
In the pale moonlight
Let's make a little magic tonight

Let's make a little magic tonight
Let's fall in love again
A natural delight
We'll take a lovers leap
Join hands and hold on tight
Let's make a little magic tonight

Is your heart a-racing?
Pounding in your chest?
Take me back to school babe
Put me to the test
Your love is like an apple
And I want to take a bite
Let's make a little magic tonight

A marriage needs affection
That's what the experts say
I can think of nothing better
Than a good roll in the hay
Hey, hey
