

Sorry

Pat Benatar

I remember when you loved me
I remember the way it used to be
Then you hurt me and I hurt you
We were fools, as foolish as fools can be
Even if you go I will still remain..

(chorus)

Here you make me bleed again
When I'm already drownin'
And out here where the air is thin there's just no mercy
Maybe we could try again, put the past behind us and We'd be ready to pretend and say we're sorry

I remember how you loved me
I remember how good it used to feel
Then we let it just slip away
We were dreamers pretending it wasn't real

Even if you go I will still remain
I will wait for you until you return..

To your senses

You'll miss me, yes you will
You won't know how much until I'm gone
Like the sweet memory of something you used to love
That can't be found that's not around.

Even if you go I will still remain.

Here you make me bleed again
When I'm already drownin' and out here where the air is thin
There's just no mercy
Maybe we could start again
Put the past behind us and we'd be ready to pretend
And say we're sorry..and say we're sorry now
