Beloved

April Smith

I know it's over
My heart will never know another lover
We two shall never share another breath
My will has faded
This longing it's an unrelenting torture
Oh mercy take me now to my beloved

You were the thrill that stilled my beating heart baby
You are the one I'll dream the most
But if I cannot have the real thing
I'll gladly settle for your ghost

And you can haunt these halls
All you want
And if I ever leave
I will take you with me

Da da'

This thing that beats
Is the one thing that keeps us apart
Well they say to say goodbye
But I'd surely rather die
From my broken heart

You were the thrill
That stilled my beating heart baby
You are the one I'll dream the most
But if I cannot have the real thing
I'll gladly settle for you ghost
I'll gladly settle for you ghost
