

Carry You Home

Zara Larsson

I've been knocked down
I've been lost
With a ground shaking under my feet
I gave it all to someone
Who said, "fire, run" I've been, I've been through the days
When bright love turns into hate
You bend and you bend till you break
Till the lights all gone When the one you care for just takes it all
Washing you down like a waterfall
You lose the way and you hit the wall
I'll be the one, I'll be the one, I'll be the one to Carry you home
When it hurts like you've crashed from above
Heal your broken bones
When you can't move, your heart's still locked out
You rise, you rise, you rise
Sometimes you need someone to carry you home
When it hurts like you've crashed from above
When it's true love I've been knocked down on my own
When the water's too deep and too cold
Sleepless so many nights
With a broken heart running wild When the one you care for just takes it all
Washing you down like a waterfall
You lose the way and you hit the wall
I'll be the one, I'll be the one, I'll be the one to
Carry you home
When it hurts like you've crashed from above
Heal your broken bones
When you can't move, your heart's still locked out
You rise, you rise, you rise
Sometimes you need someone to carry you home
When it hurts like you've crashed from above
When it's true love [x3] I'll be the one, I'll be the one, I'll be the one to Carry you home
When it hurts like you've crashed from above
Heal your broken bones
When you can't move, your heart's still locked out
You rise, you rise, you rise
Sometimes you need someone to carry you home

When it hurts like you've crashed from above
When it's true love I gave it all to someone
Who said "fire, run"
