Eternal World

Crimson Glory

Down through the valley of shadows we go
Into the canyon of moonlight below
Stairs of stone descending
Down where the magic river's bendingDown the river we go
To the sea of gold
(Where?)
Things are not as they seem (Why?)

You are not as you wereBehold eternal world

Where time has no meaning
Reality is dreamingFeel your flesh is melting

Feel you spirit twisting

Feel it ripping at your mindThere's no time for praying

Feel your soul is pleading
Welcome to eternal worldEternal world

Eternal world Eternal world
