Forever in Dreams

Eldest 11

My world contains a heart, right beside me....
I took a shot in the dark. Unfolding covers as I move...
With my hand on your chest, I can feel your heartbeat I lose...
With her skin so smooth! So careful not to wake you...
With the bloodshot eyes, I hold you tight, until I fall away, away from you....In the early hours of a dark lit room...Waking up with the shock of lying next to you...
With the pupils dilated I can see an outline of you....Tracing you....Hoping it's you...."the one" out there that I felt...
Every night connected to you, and every time, I felt you move....In the early hours of a dark lit room...Waking up with the shock of lying next to you...
With the pupils dilated I can see an outline of you....Tracing you....
At 3:30 am my world is turning! I pull her close to me by my arm wrapped around her tummy...
I re-align, remove the hair from her eyes, and memorize....Before I fall away.....When our eyes collided, I felt the retina burn (nobody can tear me away)
With this ring, forever! I'll hold you high, and we'll fall away in dreams.....I always knew you were out there...I knew....Now I'm brand new....Every time that you wanted to push so hard....I was there
Every time you lost your only God....I was there
Every time you lost all of your hopes....I felt you there
Every time that I felt so exposed....You felt me there
(felt me there)When our eyes collided, I felt the retina burn (nobody can tear me away)
With this ring, forever! I'll hold you high....Forever.....Forever.....
When our eyes collided, I felt the retina burn (nobody can tear me away)
With this ring, forever! I'll hold you high, and we'll fall away in dreams..... and we'll fall away in dreams.....
