Sorry

Our Lady Peace

Today's a reason for living Today's the blood from a stone

Today's a light from a candle

Helping us to find our way homeToday, we carry each other

Today, the past is a freak

Today's a time for forgiveness

You were never that good to meWelcome to this world [Incomprehensible]I'm sorry, I can't lie, I'm wasting too much time

Drowning, I've been blind, but I've opened up my eyes

Sorry, I can't lie

So I just say goodbye, goodbye, goodbye, yeahToday's tasting the honey

Today's the strike of a match

Today's the lines in the pavement

Helping us to find our way backToday's the crosses we carry

Today's the strength that we need

Today's the hand of an angel

You were not the kind to believeWelcome to this world [Incomprehensible]I'm sorry, I can't lie, I'm wasting too much time

Drowning, I've been blind, but I've opened up my eyes

Sorry, I can't lie

So I just say goodbye, goodbye, goodbye, yeahOh, what a day, oh what a day, oh my God

Oh, what a day, oh what a day, oh my God

Oh, what a day, oh what a day, oh my God

And oh my God, and oh my God, yeahToday, we carry each other

Today, we do what we should

Today's a time for forgiving

Today I wish I couldI'm sorry, I can't lie, I'm wasting too much time

Drowning, I've been blind, but I've opened up my eyes

Sorry, I can't lie

So I just say goodbye, goodbye, goodbye Another bye, goodbye, goodbye

Another bye, goodbye, goodbye, yeah

Another bye, goodbye, goodbye

Another bye, goodbye, bye
