

Sea of Tranquility

Gazpacho

Suspended mess in timelessness too cold to be out waltzing.
Submerged within beneath my skin a bullet in the ocean.Up in the sky where starfish fly a deep blue lake of ice.
A quiet sea of tranquility and who will help you now.Nobody will ever love like I do
Nobody will ever love you like I do.Until that breath in emptiness a darkness lay around you.
Afloat and free on a silvered sea and who will ever find youNobody...
