

You'll Never Break My Heart

Come And Go

I see the light shining through your doorway
It's letting me know that you ain't there
And that porch swing sings its song in the summer
It was a song that we once shared
You flattened the wheels of my old Camaro
Took the keys to my rusty Ford
Said you'd mail them to me in a box or a letter
Once you found a way and sure

Chorus

And That promise I made you not to follow
Don't seem so goddamn smart
And that hole in the ____?
You made with the bottle you threw was aimed at my heart
But there's one thing you should know
Girl you can go, but girl you'll never break my heart
You'll never break my heart

I guess you could say I should have seen it was coming
Should have been wary right from the start
When you asked me to act out before you created
But I never understood the part
Tell me again how I don't deserve you
Tell me again what I don't wanna hear
How my life's been spent making sure I ain't lonely
But I never really let you near

Chorus

And my faces all look the same in the mirror
I think I've lost my mind
And the things that we both shared just sit there
Memories of a place and time
Where the things I said to you still mattered

Chorus

You'll never break my heart x2
