

The Girl Behind the Show

Justin Tyler

I've been around and I've seen faces
Telling stories without a word
You're an empty page still waiting for love to find you I feel you reaching out for something
Like a heart looking for a beat
The wall you built is hard to climb
But I wanna try to see inside
Everything you try to hide from me You're like a secret
I feel it
It's getting too hard to keep it
Like you wanna be exposed
So many missing pieces
You're like a mystery
And I just wanna know
The girl behind the show
The girl behind the show So tell me why all the theatrics
You can just be you with me
Maybe if you drop the act
We could stop this madness
The greatest story never told
It starts when you leave the stage
Your world behind the curtain
Is all I wanna see inside
Everything you try to hide from me You're like a secret
I feel it
It's getting too hard to keep it
Like you wanna be exposed
So many missing pieces
You're like a mystery
And I just wanna know
The girl behind the show
The girl behind the show Take a bow and kill the spotlight
Show me now where I can find the truth in you You're like a secret
I feel it
It's getting too hard to keep it
Like you wanna be exposed
So many missing pieces
You're like a mystery
And I just wanna know

The girl behind the show
The girl behind the show
The girl behind the show
