

The Way You Want Me To

98 Degrees

Won't throw no shade on you
Don't wanna put you through
Those lies you lived before
Girl, I can give you more
Baby, take my hand
And try to understand
That I'll be here for you
Just the way you want me to Feel like you're wastin' all of your time
You're goin' out of your mind
From all the tears you've been cryin'
And I know all the things he's puttin' you through
The cheatin' no one can prove
You never know what to do, yea Just tell me what you feel inside
Don't be consumed by foolish pride
'Cause I can see with my two eyes
The pain that you've been holdin' tight
It's time that you begin to feel
The kind of love that's really real, yea
Girl, let me tell you the deal Won't throw no shade on you
Don't wanna put you through
Those lies you lived before
Girl, I can give you more
Baby, take my hand
And try to understand
That I'll be here for you
Just the way you want me to It's time for you to decide
What you want from your life
No room for compromise
'Cause I can give you everything that you need
Open your eyes and you'll see
That I can set you free, baby So come to me with the broken heart
You'll feel the love from the very start
I think it's time for you to part
From a man that leaves you in the dark
You're the type that needs romance
Someone to break you from your trance
Now, baby, here is your chance ohh Won't throw no shade on you
Don't wanna put you through
Those lies you lived before
