Living Proof

Matt Simons

Another evening falls
Moonlight starts to drape
Taking to these city streets
She searches for escapeDaddy's little girl
He never got to know
As with every day that's passed
The void begins to growand I'm sorry I'm the one who let her down
I'm so sorry I'm the one who never cared to hang around
Now you're stuck here living proof
Tragedy is real
Swim in seas of millions
Couldn't care less how you feelSomehow life goes on
Somehow life goes on
Somehow life goes on
Somehow life goes onWent out friday night
Never to return
You are all sound sleeping as
The fire starts to burnHuddled in a room
No one says a thing
Seven pairs of crying eyes
Beg that phone to ringand I'm sorry I'm the one who let him go
I'm so sorry I'm the one who took the wheel and lost control
Now you're stuck here living proof
Tragedy is real
Swim in seas of millions
Couldn't care less how you feelSomehow life goes on
Somehow life goes on
Somehow life goes on
Somehow life goes onooo ooo ooo ooo x4Home on tuesday night
Everything seems fine
Suddenly there's pain
She dons a robe and gets in lineBeen a hundred days
What a brilliant fight
As the clock strikes 4am
She walks into the lightand I'm sorry there was nothing we could do
I'm so sorry I'm the one who's left here crying over you
Now you're stuck here living proof
Tragedy is real
Swim in seas of millions

Couldn't care less how you feelSomehow life goes on
Somehow life goes on
Somehow life goes on
Somehow life goes on
Somehow life goes on
Somehow life goes on
Somehow life goes on
Somehow life goes onooo ooo ooo
