

Disrespectful (feat. Mila J)

Trey Songz

If my girl found out you was on her side of the bed she'll kill you
If your man found out I was on his side of the bed he'll go ham
If my girl found out you was wearing her robe I would probably go missing
If your man found out I was wearing his slippers, wait
I don't care about none of these niggas, none of these niggas
I don't care about nobody but you Girl you so special, I might be disrespectful
Girl you so special, we so disrespectful Girl you can call my phone and four in the morning
Girl you can ride shotgun every time I'm rolling
Girl you can come with me to her favorite diner
She even took me home so I could meet her mama (disrespectful) If my man found out you were using his rubbers I'd be dead
If your girl found out you was paying my rent she'd lose her head
If my man found out I was rushing your chores he'd pull out the desert eagle
If your girl found out how good I was riding it, wait
I don't care about none of these bitches, none of these bitches
I don't care about nobody but you Boy you so special, I might be disrespectful
Boy you so special, we so disrespectful Boy you can call my phone and four in the morning
Boy you can ride shotgun every time I'm rolling
Boy you can come with me to his favorite diner
I'll even take you home so you could meet my mama (disrespectful) I don't mind being a little disrespectful
You've been down for a nigga since I met you
I don't mind being a little disrespectful
Very special so I'll be disrespectful Girl you so special, I might be disrespectful
Girl you so special, we so disrespectful Girl you can call my phone and four in the morning
Boy you can ride shotgun every time I'm rolling
Girl you can come with me to her favorite diner
I'll even take you home so you could meet my mama (disrespectful)
