Rewrite

Tatiana Owens

The grass is greener on the other side I guess
It's just a cliche but it's one I never get
I spend my time with you staring out my window
I see my knight in shining armor taking me away
But I'm still sitting here with you each passing day
I tell myself we can make it work but I knowI'm lying to myself (You should never have to second guess a true love)
I might need someone else (I guess it's time for me to find a new love)[Chorus]
So I said I needed time, I said I needed space
I said that you and I were never meant to be
So I dated other guys, but they could not replace
That what I always needed was you and me
But you can't rewrite the pages of a love story
No you can't rewrite the pages of a love storyI wrote you off and I know it wasn't right
Now I'm writing all these chapters I don't like Wanna tear out all the pages start it over
With pen and paper I just scribbled out your name
Now we know who's wrong and right and who's to blame
I have some final lines to cry I need your shoulder
